NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

IN MEMORIAL

"And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, 'Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works do follow them'." (Revelation 14:13)

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE SUPERINTENDENT/BISHOP
D. CHRIS THOMPSON
ANNUAL REPORT – 2005

2005 was a year of great blessings. Our theme was – "Yes, Lord!" We endeavored to walk in obedience to His wishes and plans.

It was a record year of church planting with a net increase of eleven new churches. Many churches experienced revivals. The stats following in this report show a good net increase of church membership even when many are adjusting the rolls for the first time in years. The Conference went over ONE million in General Tithe last year. We are the only Conference to have ever done so. Praise the Lord! One point six million was given in World Missions. Nearly another million was given in Katrina aid. A new auditorium was completed and dedicated.

It was a year of great blessing but a year of great challenge. Thirteen of our ministerial family went to heaven. Thirty-two pastors were assigned to the established churches. Three of our churches closed. The allocation from the churches to the Conference was cut as we move to a Biblical tithe for General and Conference support. May the Lord grant His grace and anointing during these challenging days.

As we move into the challenging days of 2006 we move with the knowledge that "He is Our Sufficiency." "Therefore" (Our theme for 2006). He will provide in all that He has asked us to do.

There are many challenges. Our communities are full of men and women lost without Christ. Churches need to be planted – English speaking and Spanish speaking. We need to reach out and enlist African-American churches and other ethnic groups. New ministers and laymen need to be trained. Discipleship must occur. Older saints and the youth must work in greater harmony together. The Conference income must increase even in the midst of budget cuts. (We must move our churches to a Biblical tithe). More income is needed for additional staff and to increase our retirement to the ever increasing number of retired clergy. Our Spanish speaking churches must be trained and integrated into the Conference program.

The newly opened J.A. Culbreth Auditorium must be paid for. The campus enlargement and renovations must be completed – restrooms behind the Octagon, new recreational field, new RV court, new Royal Ranger camp, etc. A new guest house (mini-dorm) is needed. This will be done primarily from the sell of the donated Sudie Butler land in Sampson County. Such a home will be named in honor of Miss Butler. It will sit in the vicinity of the old Thurman House location.

Yes, there is so much to be done. Our new mentoring program needs to be expanded and so very much more. We will get there because "He Is Our Sufficiency."

2005 was a very busy year. I preached, taught, or gave devotions 215 times. I drove over 34,000 miles in ministry. I flew out of the state eight times for General Executive Board meetings, Polity Committee meetings, General Conference, etc. It was my pleasure to serve as Superintendent of this great Conference. I have always represented the Conference with a sense of pride. We have a great group of faithful and creative churches and ministers.

I could go on and on with personal stats but the Lord knows. Each day was filled with new challenges but with the knowledge that He was able. Allow me to mention some very special individuals.

It was a joy to work with the Presiding Bishop James Leggett and his fine staff in Oklahoma City. Brother Leggett has led us well. In addition it was a special privilege of mine to serve as vice-chairman of the Falcon Children's Home Board and to work with Superintendent Elwood Long. He was a great blessing even in the midst of losing his special companion, Sylvia Blaylock Long. We say losing but she is not lost. We know where she is!

I thank the Lord for Betty. She has been with me in ministry now for thirty-two years. She serves the Conference well as Archives and Ministers Wives Fellowship Director. She led in the opening and dedication last year of the J. Doner and Luine Lee Archives Center. She is a woman of faith, hope, and excitement in the Lord. Well done, wife of my youth and mother of our three sons.

I and the Conference are blessed with a fantastic group of office executives and staff. This Resource Development Center staff is awesome. Ms. Dolores Reynolds and Mrs. Kay Glover have served here well over twenty years. Mrs. Gina Page and Mr. Tommy Vaughan have been here now for a number of years. They are appreciated for their diligent labors. New people came to us last year – Mrs. Nicole Turransky, Miss Sarah Salter, Mrs. Melissa Mendieta Sanchez, and Reverend Mike Reynolds. These are already finding their places and doing a work for the kingdom. Mrs. Joyce Swinson retired last spring. Well Done, Joyce. You served well.

Reverend Roland Harrell, Stewardship Officer, supervised well all the Conference funds last year. He increased the loan fund and managed it effectively. In addition he supervised in detail the building of the new J.A. Culbreth Auditorium. Generations to come will praise the vision of the North Carolina Conference Board and the detailed sacrificial work of Roland Harrell in executing the plan. Well Done!

Reverend Danny Nelson had a miraculous year in the Evangelism and World Missions Ministries. He has been creative and obedient to the Lord in planting churches, revitalizing churches, and motivating to greater World Missions support. In addition, Brother Nelson represented this Conference well as a member of the World Mission Board. 2005 was a miraculous year in Evangelism and Missions. Well Done, Danny!

Reverend Charles Boyd became a "Master" last year having completed his Master of Ministry degree at Southwestern Christian University. He has always been a master to the North Carolina Conference in the Church Education Ministries work. Our people are better trained and more young people are on the way to heaven because of Charles. Well Done, Charles!

Reverend Luis Avila had his first full year as a member of the Conference Executive Staff. The number of Spanish speaking churches increased to 50. A new training program was established, the INE. In addition Luis ministered and taught in several other Conferences and nationally to help establish other Spanish speaking churches. He has proven to be a very able assistant to me to our Hispanic churches. Well Done, Luis.

Allow me to speak a word of praise to the wives of the Conference Executives. These are special women of God. They have prayed, traveled, and ministered with their husbands. Thank you and well done – Betty, Phyllis, Rose, Laura, and Lilliana. You are very special women of God.

I praise the Lord for all the boards of the Conference. These men and women have sacrificed many hours and days to facilitate the work of the Lord and Conference. They each are loved and appreciated.

Allow me to mention with much love and appreciation the various other Department and Ministry Heads. Space just does not allow personal words on each. They all are fantastic leaders. I would to God they each could be full time. They have served well! Congratulations and well done to:

Reverend Jimmy Whitfield, Assistant Superintendent and Director, School of Ministry
Patsy Deese, Women's Ministries
Ronnie Basden, Men's Ministries
Lydia Figueroa, WIN Prayer Network
Bobby Williams, DRUSA
Bobby McNeese, Girl's Ministries
Andre Davenport, Royal Rangers
Steve Enloe, M-25
Jay Stone, Planned Giving
Dwight Dunning, Conference Counselor

I also would like to praise the Lord for Colonel Jack Kelly. Brother Jack Kelly retired at year's end as the National Men's Ministries Director. Brother Kelly served well and made a difference. He has been a great blessing to me personally and to the men of the North Carolina Conference.

As the Lord leads, I continue to look forward to ministry within the North Carolina Conference. I thank the pastors and churches for their faithfulness and their personal support to my leadership.

Let us now review some of the statistics for 2005.

Four primary records are now being kept by the General Church Archives in Oklahoma City. These are number of churches, church a.m. attendance, church membership, and systematic Bible study (Sunday School) attendance. Here are the records for 2005.

	2005	2004	Difference
Number of Churches	209	198	11
Church Membership	27638	27222	416
Church A.M. Attendance	18851	18714	137
Systematic Bible Study Attendance	11756	12011	(255)

I praise the Lord for these increases. Our Conference continues to move forward. May the Lord be praised for all those new churches.

Brother Charles Boyd and I believe the Systematic Bible Study decrease is due to inaccurate reporting. Many churches have changed from a traditional Sunday School to other ways of teaching the Bible. The reporting is not keeping up with the changes. Anyone who receives at least thirty minutes of instruction may be counted.

CONFERENCE BYLAWS

Minister's Records

1. All clergy shall keep a record of their work, number of sermons preached, and personal finances on forms provided by the conference.

2. Names of all deceased ministers shall be listed in the Conference Minutes.

3. A complete roster of local churches with complete addresses, including rural routes, highway numbers, zip codes, and telephone numbers shall be included in the Minutes. These churches are listed by districts.

4. Reports by both Church Secretary and Ministers shall be mailed in time to arrive at the Conference office by the tenth of each month. All churches shall report monthly and annually to the Conference. Annual reports are due in the Conference Office by January 10.

Pastoral Changes

1. Each church voting for pastor shall use official ballots which are approved by the General Conference. This vote shall be taken on a date determined by the Conference Board preceding the Quadrennial Conference. When a vote for pastor is taken, the actual vote totals are to be reported to the local church and to the Conference Superintendent within twenty-four hours. The Superintendent may grant permission for a vote to be taken on a different date.

2. All voting for pastor must be conducted within the guidelines as set forth in the Manual of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. No exceptions will be allowed.

3. If a pastor indicates to his church that he desires to serve another term, then later decides to the contrary, and requests to be moved, this request must in writing and a copy presented to the Conference Board for study before the request shall be granted. A copy of the pastor's request will be filed with the church he or she is leaving.

4. If a church votes for a pastor and the church board makes a request to the Conference Board contrary to the vote of the church, such requests must be in writing and a copy filed with the Conference Board. A copy of this request will be filed with the local church and pastor.

Ministerial Candidates - Licensing and Ordination

1. Application for admission into the Conference shall be made to the Conference

Superintendent.

2. All candidates for the ministry shall be a member of a local Pentecostal Holiness Church at the time of their application for credentials.

3. All candidates shall satisfy the committee on Examination and /or Conference Board that they have met the requirements of the General Conference Manual for license and ordination.

4. The Committee on Examination or the Conference Board shall not consider the application of any person for membership into the Conference for license who does not have the sponsorship of at least one Pentecostal Holiness minister who will vouch for his or her character.

5. The Committee on Examination shall examine all candidates carefully regarding doctrine and reputation. Each candidate shall provide a credit report no more than six months old. The personal credit report shall not be distributed to the Committee but shall be reported on to the Committee by the Chairman, the Conference Superintendent.

6. All candidates for license and ordination shall have completed the courses of studies approved by the General Conference or equivalent offered by any college approved by the Conference Board.

7. The Committee on Examination, comprised of eight clergy members, shall continue to function in examining ministerial candidates. Two members shall be elected at each annual session to serve for four years on a rotating basis. The Hispanic Leadership Committee shall examine Spanish speaking candidates and make proper recommendations to the Conference or Conference Board.

Deeds

No property shall be accepted in the Conference with a revertible clause in the deed. All deeds to church property shall be drawn in harmony with the specific guidelines as set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual.

Local Church Boards

1. Eligibility for selection and tenure of service on the Church Leadership Team (Elders, Deacons, Board Members) will be determined by the local church in harmony with the guidelines set forth in the Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual.

2. The local church shall refrain from electing to the Official Board more than one member of an immediate family (husband-wife, parent-child, brother-sister, brother-brother, sister-sister) in it's congregation, except in cases where it is unavoidable.

3. The local church shall not elect more one member of an immediate family to church or departmental treasurers offices.

4. Each member of the local church who serves in any official capacity shall be required to furnish evidence that he or she pays tithes into the church where he or she may serve.

Resolutions

All resolutions offered from the floor of the Conference shall bear the signatures equal to the number of persons on the Resolutions committee. The resolution shall be submitted in writing.

Finances-Minister and Church

1. In pastoral changes, the local church shall be responsible for the moving of the incoming pastor.

2. Each church shall support the Conference Budget by sending to the Conference Office monthly the percentage of it's income from regular tithes and offerings determined by the Quadrennial Conference. In case of failure to comply with this regulation, The Conference Superintendent may ask for an explanation for delay in payment.

3. Each local church and the Conference shall support the General Program of the denomination. Each local church shall send a tithe (10%) of it's income from regular tithes and offerings to the Conference Office to be appropriately forwarded to the General Church Treasury. Churches complying with these regulations may be permitted to earmark special offerings. All funds raised for World Missions, Evangelism, Children's Home, Education and other designated agencies are to be sent to the Conference Treasury monthly and forwarded accordingly.

4. All members of the Conference shall pay one hundred percent (100%) of their tithes into the Conference. Members who fail to comply with this regulation will be subject to the disciplines provided by the Pentecostal Holiness Church Manual. The Conference Superintendent may notify such members as to their delinquency by letter quarterly. All tithes are to be paid on or before the tenth of each month.

5. In addition to the tithe, all active (those not superannuated) members shall pay one and one-half percent (1.5%) of their net income, or two hundred dollars ($200.00) whichever is greater, yearly for Conference Superannuation. Failure to do this forfeits one from drawing Superannuation benefits for the year (s) not paid. Ministerial students are to pay at least one hundred dollars ($100.00) per year while in school.

6. Recommendations for salaries, benefits, etc. for Conference Officials, Pastors, Associate Pastors, etc. are to be found in the current Conference Finance Report.

7. The Superintendent shall confer with the church boards in the matter of Pastoral support where the need is apparent.

8. The rate for official travel shall be the current rate set by the Internal Revenue Service.

9. The Conference Treasurer shall be authorized to pay the moving expenses for one move of a retired minister up the limit set by the Conference Board.

10. All salaries and benefits including mileage received by the Conference personnel shall be included in the Conference Treasurer's Report.

VACATIONS

The Conference Superintendent shall be given vacation on the same basis as pastors. He shall be permitted to conduct three revival campaigns outside the Conference boundaries at his discretion and any compensation for such services shall not apply on his salary.

Full-time pastors shall be permitted to conduct three one-week revivals or their equivalent each year. Ministers on full-time assignment will receive vacation and revival benefits according to the guidelines governing his/her department but not less than applies to pastors.

LOCAL CHURCH - MINISTERIAL RELATIONS

1. All evangelistic campaigns, prayer meetings, or religious exercises conducted by members within a radius of one mile of a local church shall be under the supervision of the local pastor. Any effort to start a new church must be under the supervision of the Conference Superintendent and the Evangelism Director.

2. Ministers shall conduct themselves in keeping with appropriate ministerial ethics when making visits to former pastorates and shall not engage in any activity or conversation that would cause confusion and create a lack of cooperation of the church with the current pastor.

3. No pastor or member of a local church shall engage in any effort to solicit absentee votes or to campaign for or against the incumbent pastor. Superannuated ministers and local evangelists shall refrain from any activity which will have the effect of retarding the growth and progress of the local church which may result in interference with the program of the present pastor.

4. Each minister when moving from a church shall leave a complete file of members with addresses and occupations for the incoming pastor. He/she shall also leave a complete file of minutes of all Church Board meetings.

Use of Conference Facilities

Anyone approved to use the North Carolina Conference facilities at Falcon shall be responsible for any and all breakage and damage to these properties.

Death of a Minister

In the event of the death of one of our ministers, the office of the Conference Superintendent shall contact the District Conference Secretaries and they shall notify the ministers of the districts. The Conference Board Members will be notified by the Conference Office.

Conference Planning

1. The Conference Board will serve as the Nominating committee for all Conference sessions.

2. The Conference Board will set the dates for all Conference training events (not department) and Falcon Camp Meeting.

3. The Conference Board and auxiliary Department leaders shall serve as a planning committee for all Promotional and Quadrennial Conference.

Revision of Bylaws

The Conference Board shall serve as the Standing Committee on Revision of Bylaws. All revisions shall be recommended to the Conference in session by the Revision Committee. A two-thirds majority vote shall be required to revise the Bylaws.

COMMITTEE ON APPRECIATION REPORT
Ninety-Fifth Annual Session
NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE
MAY 21, 2005

The prophet Daniel wrote in 12:3 "They that be wise shall shine like the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness, as the stars forever and ever."

We are accustomed to referring to performers in the arts, music, acting, sports etc. as stars. They are greatly applauded and highly compensated. The star status is highly desired and sought after.

God has a different qualification for those who may be referred to as stars. God's Stars, real heros are those men and women who accept the call of God and dedicate their lives to the ministry of the Kingdom of Heaven. In Daniel 12:3 God identifies real Stars as people who "turn many to righteousness", soul winners.

Soul winners may not be highly acclaimed or compensated like society's stars, but Almighty God has made an eternal declaration that preachers of righteousness will "shine like the stars forever and ever".

Today we will honor and applaud some of God's Stars. People who have labored selflessly to expand the Kingdom of God by winning the lost to Jesus Christ. By Evangelizing and Pastoring in the North Carolina Conference of the International Pentecostal Holiness Church.

DR. RICHARD M. WATERS

Dr. Richard Moody Waters was born on April 13, 1937 at Pinetown, North Carolina. His parents were active members of the Pinetown Pentecostal Holiness Church. At five years of age the family moved to Roanoke Rapids where Richard grew up. A Junior in High School, he accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior in 1954 at the Roanoke Rapids First Church.

On June 14, 1959 Richard married his high school sweetheart, Maxine Cobb Waters. They are the parents of two children, Sheryl White and husband Terry of Norman Oklahoma and Richard Waters Jr. of Wichita Fall, Texas. The Waters have one grandson and four granddaughters.

Dr. Waters attended North Carolina State University majoring in Electrical Engineering, North Carolina Wesleyan College earning a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Religion, Duke University earning a Masters of Divinity Degree and he received a Doctor of Ministry Degree from the Graduate Seminary of Phillips University in Enid, Oklahoma.

Dr. Waters became a faculty member at Southwestern College in Oklahoma City in 1975 and Maxine became the first personnel director of the Executive Offices of the International Pentecostal Holiness church in Bethany, Oklahoma.

At Southwestern Dr. Waters served as professor of Old and New Testament, Theology, Church History, and Christian Ethics. He served as the Vice-President for Academic Affairs for 14 years. He was listed in Who's Who in Religion in America and also served as a consultant-evaluator for the North Central Accrediting Association of Colleges and Schools.

In 1991 the Waters moved to Greenville, South Carolina accepting the position of Dean of Academics at Holmes Bible College. He became President of Holmes in August 1996.

Dr. Waters was Ordained in 1976 in the Oklahoma Conference and transferred to the North Carolina Conference in 1991. He has served as the associate pastor of the Duke University Chapel Church, and church planter and pastor of Grace Chapel in Mustang, Oklahoma.

Dr. Waters say the spiritual and ministry journey for he and his wife has been exciting, challenging and fulfilling. One of the most memorable of his ministry opportunities was his committee work on the New American Standard Bible; the Rainbow Study Bible and the Life in the Spirit Study Bible. However he says the one greatest highlight of his ministry continues to be his work with Holmes Bible College. He has helped lead Holmes into an excellent baccalaureate and associate degree program and put in place a highly credentialed experienced faculty. The school has developed a master plan for a new campus having purchased 44 acres of property near Paris Mountain where Holmes was founded. Work is now underway on the new campus.

His vision is to see Holmes become for the twenty-first century the premier Bible College of the Pentecostal movement.

This Conference is proud of the work of our own Richard Waters. We salute him for his sacrifice and untiring effort in gospel ministry and are thrilled that he has belonged to us for the last 13 years, and will continue to be a part of the work of this Conference.

RALPH STATON LEGGETT

Ralph Leggett was born May 17, 1942 to James Staton Leggett and Hazil Leggett.

Ralph attended public school in Williamston, North Carolina. He also attended classes at Holmes Bible College.

The thing Ralph remembers most about his earlier life was that he worked all the time. He worked at more than one Service Station, operating one of them as a manager. He worked at a furniture company, at Maola Milk Co., he worked as a painter, he did woodworking and sold beds, tables, chairs, storage chests etc.

This work ethic followed Ralph into his ministry. He delivered dairy products on a truck route and painted to support the family while he Evangelized, and he worked at Murphy Manufacturing Company in Wilson while he pastored the Bailey Pentecostal Holiness Church. He also worked at Fort Bragg part time while pastoring the Stedman church.

Ralph was married to Vadie Modlin on June 12, 1960. In just a couple of weeks they will celebrate 45 years of marriage.

The Leggett's have three children, son Timothy S. Leggett, daughter Tammy M. Leggett and son Tracy Alan Leggett. They have 7 grandchildren.

Ralph received his Minister's License on August 8, 1970 and was Ordained in June of 1976.

During Ralph and Vadie's 34 years of service in this Conference they have pastored 8 churches. Bailey PH Church 1970-1973; Stedman PH Church 1973-1977; Snow Hill PH Church January 1977 – June 1978; Roper PH Church 1978-1986; Tarboro PH Church 1986 – Jan. 1992; Shiloh

PH Church, Wilson 1992-2000. He has recently served as an Evangelist, and as an interim pastor at Victory Praise and Worship Center at Scotland Neck and presently serves as an interim pastor at Hobgood PH Church.

Everywhere Ralph pastored the churches grew and great progress was noted. He was always leading the churches in renovation and building programs. He always left a church in better physical as well as spiritual condition than when he went there. The list of improvements Ralph initiated and most of the time helped do the work for are too numerous to read in this setting. The two pastorates that might record the most progress and improvement were the Tarboro and Shiloh churches.

We salute Rev. Ralph Leggett for 34 years of loyal service to the Kingdom of God in the North Carolina Conference of the international Pentecostal Holiness Church.

TIMOTHY GEORGE CREEL

Timothy Creel was born May 3, 1939 in Durham, North Carolina the sixth of seven children born to Linwood Franklin and Louetta Haney Creel.

Tim was born to "cotton Mill" workers and the family had to learn to live on a tight budget. Because of the financial stress Tim started working at age 7 delivering newspapers. The money was used for school supplies and lunch money.

Tim remembers in spite of the limited resources how rich his home life was because of the deep faith and devotion of his parents who took him to church literally from birth. He was exposed to cottage prayer meetings, to the concept of fasting and praying and regular Sunday School and church attendance.

Rev. Creel was saved when he was 6 years old, sanctified at age 10 and Baptized with the Holy Spirit at age 12. He joined the Hyde Park (now Living Waters) PH Church in Durham at age 10 and was called to preach at age 14.

Tim's first effort at ministry was assisting Pastor J. Arthur Wells preaching at the Angier Avenue Mission in Durham. He received Mission Worker's License in 1955 and Minister's License in 1956 in the Western North Carolina Conference and received his first church assignment the same year being stationed as a 16 year old Pastor at the Oxford, North Carolina PH Church. He was ordained in June 1958 at Greensboro, North Carolina. At age 19 he was the youngest ordained minister in the Conference.

Tim graduated from Durham High School in 1957 and enrolled at Holmes Bible College that fall. He graduated May 16, 1960 from Holmes. He has completed some continuing education Courses from Emmanuel College.

White a student at Holmes Tim met Lillian Underwood from Sanford NC and they were married July 2, 1960. They had four children, Caressa, Timothy, Danny, and Steven. They were married 29 years and worked together in ministry until she died from cancer on April 3, 1989.

On October 13, 1990 Tim was married to Ruth Adams Mills, whose husband Albert Mills Sr. died in 1976 at age 37. Ruth has two sons, Rev. W. A. Mills Jr. and Anthony Mills. The Creels together have 17 grandchildren.

Before transferring to the North Carolina Conference in 1965 Tim served as pastor at the Oxford NC PH Church; Zion Gospel Tabernacle in Chatham, Ontario, Canada; and also served as C. E. Director and Youth Pastor at the Evangelistic Centre PH Church in Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

In this Conference Rev. Creek has served as pastor at the Bethany PH Church, Williamston NC; the Mount Olive PH Church at Pembroke (twice for a total of 15 years), the Wallace PH Church, the New Bern 1st PH Church and the Pike's Cross Roads PH Church at Pikeville NC. (Twice for total of 11 years). This was his last ministry position as Senior Pastor.

Tim has also served 18 years as a District Evangelism/Missions Director and 5 years as N. C. Conference Ambassador for Christ Boy's Club Director. He has served 6 years on the Conference Examining Committee.

Recently Tim has assisted Pastor Paul Brafford in various functions at the Greenville 1st Church and is currently serving as Interim Pastor of the Calvary Temple PH Church at Winterville, NC.

We salute Timothy George Creel for 39 Years of dedicated service to the NC Conference in gospel ministry.

REV. MRS. PATSY JOHNSON PAYNE

Patsy Johnson Payne was born in High Point North Carolina on December 18, 1939, the oldest of 12 children. Her parents were Joffrey and Rowena Johnson. She says her parent's faith had a great impact upon her life as a child. Her parents were Spirit Filled believers and took the children to church, to tent meetings and revivals such as those held by Oliver B. Green and Oral Roberts.

She remembers giving her heart to Christ in a revival at Duncan NC near Fuquay Varina at a Church of God when she was 12 years old.

Patsy was married to Robert Payne December 17, 1955. They have five children and 12 grandchildren.

When Patsy was 24 and living in Baltimore Maryland she rededicated her life to Jesus and received for herself Pentecost. She became active in out reach ministries such as prison, rest homes and street ministries. She was also teaching Sunday School at Faith Tabernacle full Gospel Church.

Patsy says she knew from her childhood that God wasted her to be in ministry. She received her first Ministry credentials in 1965 from Faith Evangelistic Alliance Inc. of Baltimore, Maryland.

In 1977 the Payne's moved back to North Carolina and she became active in the Woodland Avenue Pentecostal Holiness Church in Sanford, joining the Church in 1979. Pastor Horace Rogers appointed Patsy to rotate with him at the Convalescent Center in Sanford on Sunday Mornings. This was a ministry she continued for six years.

Patsy received Mission Worker's License October 14, 1982; Minister's License June 11, 1992 and was Ordained May 29, 2001.

Patsy has studied extensively to improve her ministry opportunities. Her higher education includes Central Carolina Community College, Dove Bible Institute, Carolina Bible College, and Bethel Bible College and Seminary.

Patsy's ministry endeavors have been numerous. She served as teacher and leader in her church in Maryland for more that 12 years. In addition to her ministry in Maryland she has ministered in North Carolina, Florida, Israel, Egypt and in Haiti. She has participated in and or hosted at least 15 Holy Land Tours.

Patsy has served as Women Aglow President in Sanford. She has been a local church Women Ministry Director and GEMS Coordinator. She served in several leadership and ministry capacities in the Woodland Avenue, now Eastside church in Sanford.

She has been available to area pastors to preach for them when needed.

Patsy is so grateful for Bob, her loving and caring husband of fifty years. He has been her greatest supported in ministry.

The North Carolina Conference salutes Patsy Johnson Payne for 13 years of dedicated service to the Conference in gospel ministry.

REV. LINWOOD JACKSON BUTTS

Linwood Butts was born January 29, 1934. He and Mazel were married June 23, 1955. The Butts have two children, Terrie Elizabeth Dickerson and Tammie Denise Alford.

The Butts have three grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Linwood was saved at the Grimesland PH Church and became a Pentecostal Holiness Church Member in 1957. He received Mission Worker's License in 1959.

When Rev. S. J. Williams was Conference Director of Evangelism Linwood worked with him in establishing the Plymouth PH Church and served as its first pastor for 3 years. Linwood helped to organized 4 churches and in addition to Plymouth has pastored at Stantonsburg, Ayden, Bailey and in Okmulgee Oklahoma and Colorado Springs, Colorado. He brought the Harvest Temple church into the Conference while serving as its pastor.

For several years Linwood was credentialed with the Liberty Pentecostal Assemblies. He transferred back into the North Carolina Conference in 1998.

Linwood and Mazel currently attend the Hopewell Pentecostal Holiness Church in Greenville.

We salute Rev. Linwood Butts for 6 years of dedicated service as an ordained minister to the North Carolina Conference in the Gospel Ministry.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE DAY
SATURDAY, MAY 21, 2005
MEMOIRS

As I look across this auditorium today, I am missing the faces of some great/Godly people who have graced our lives with theirs. They have walked with God before us; their contributions and their testimonies we greatly cherish. Join me today as we briefly survey their lives, honor their memories and give our corporate condolences to their families and might I add that nothing we can say today can adequately describe the accolades of a child of God when they step into His presence.

Rev. Thomas Edwin Bizzell

Rev. Thomas E. ("Tom Ed") Bizzell, age 85, died peacefully at his home on a Sunday afternoon. He was born May 21, 1919, to the late Rev. Tom and Azzie Ado Worley Bizzell, and was preceded in death by his wife of 57 years, Lois Rachel Rogers Bizzell, and a daughter, Ruth Bizzell. Born in Johnston County, he was a farmer and a Pentecostal Holiness minister for 43 years. He pastured churches at Black Creek, Caraleigh, Selma, Bailey, Micro, Manley Grove, Clayton and Jones Grove, before being superannuated in 1985. He married Lois Rachel Rogers on September 28, 1940. She was a loving wife and mother and played a huge part in his ministry, staying beside him in every church he pastured and during his evangelizing. She sang the gospel, and he preached.

The celebration service for Bro. Tom was held on September 22, 2004 at the Bizzell Grove PH Church.

Surviving are: daughters Annette, Betsy, Bonnie and Ginger; sons Teeny, Steve and Tony; 18 grandchildren, 13 great grandchildren and 1 great-great grandchild; three brothers and two sisters.

Brother Bizzell felt called to serve the smaller churches. He made his living by truck farming. Though a good farmer, his number one calling was to be a preacher. And preach he did for some 60 years. This man was a great blessing to many. He always had a good word and a smiling face. Tom Ed Bizzell was a man of God. He will be greatly missed by the NC Conference. May the Lord give us many more like him. May the Lord give us many more couples like Tom Ed and Rachel. They were a team and used by God!

Rev. Joseph Garland Edwards

Reverend Garland Edwards left the confines of earth for heaven on Tuesday morning, January 25, 2005. He was survived by his wife, Vernise and two sons, Bruce and Joe. He leaves five grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

The celebration services were held at 11:00 a.m. on Thursday, January 27, 2005 at Coley Funeral Home Chapel in Kenly, North Carolina. Pastor Mike Capps of the Moore's Chapel Church officiated at the services. Reverend Jimmy Whitfield, Assistant Superintendent, spoke and represented the North Carolina Conference.

Brother Edwards was known as a man who loved his God and the church. In his later years he attended the Moore's Chapel Church. He was superannuated in 1991. He loved Sunday School and served many years as a Sunday School Teacher, many of them at Moore's Chapel. I had the opportunity of being Garland's pastor for four years at Moore's Chapel and it was indeed a privilege. I thoroughly enjoyed his Sunday School teaching and appreciated his support.

Garland Edwards was born on May 20, 1929. He was saved in a prayer meeting in June, 1952. After his conversion he served in various capacities at the Moore's Chapel Church. He served as Sunday School teacher, Lifeline Director, and Deacon. God called and he accepted the call to preach. After receiving his Mission Worker's License in 1973 he was assigned the Vick's Chapel Church. He was licensed in 1974 and officially joined the North Carolina Conference. He pastored the following churches during his active ministry years: Vick's Chapel, Micro, Selma, and Clayton (two times). He served a total of twelve years in the pastorate.

His body was laid to rest in the Moore's Chapel cemetery. However he is not there. He is in Heaven with his Lord.

Rosa Vernise Edwards
Wife of Rev. Joseph Garland Edwards

Mrs. Vernise Edwards passed away on March 24, 2005, two months after her husband, Rev. Garland Edwards. Her celebration service was held on Saturday, March 26, 2005 at 11:00 a.m. at the Coley Funeral Home Chapel, Kenly, North Carolina. Her pastor Reverend Mike Capps and Reverend Jimmy Williams officiated at her celebration. The place of burial was the Moore's Chapel Pentecostal Holiness Church Cemetery.

Sister Edwards was born on October 25, 1933. She was married to the late Reverend Garland Edwards. Together they served in the ministry for thirty-two years. They pastored four churches: Vick's Chapel, Micro, Selma, and Clayton (two times). Brother Edwards served a total of twelve years in the pastorate. The Edwards were superannuated in 1991.

Here was a fine Christian lady. She served faithfully in the church and beside her ministerial husband. All who knew her loved her. She was quiet and unassuming but walked powerfully with the Lord. As I previously stated concerning her husband, Garland, I has the opportunity of being Vernise's pastor for four years and it was an absolute privilege. She was indeed a gracious lady, serving with her husband and being totally involved in local church ministry.

Mrs. Edwards is survived by her two sons, Bruce and Joe, one sister and three brothers. She leaver five grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

May the Lord bless her rich ministry to our lives and hearts.

Rev. Cullen Pender Gurganus

Reverend Cullen Pender Gurganus went to his heavenly home on March 8, 2005. He was born March 21, 1920 in Edgecombe County. He was preceded in death by his parents. Sallie Grimmer and John Robert Gurganus: Three sisters- Bonnie, Alice, and Doris; and five brothers – Milton, Robert, Benjamin, Sammy, and Howard. He was an army veteran of World War II. He volunteered for active service.

He is survived by his loving wife of sixty-five years, Gladys Irene Jones Gurganus. They were married September 16, 1939. He is also survived by his two children , Irene Gay and Cullen P. There are four grandchildren and ten great grandchildren.

Brother Gurganus was saved in July 1946 in Norfolk, Virginia. In 1948 he was granted Mission Workers License in Suffolk, Virginia. He was Licensed in 1949 in Hopewell, Virginia. He was ordained in 1951 by Bishop T. A. Melton in Hopewell, Virginia.

Reverend Gurganus was a member of the Eastern Virginia (New Redemption Ministries), Southern California, and North Carolina Conferences. He transferred to the North Carolina Conference in 1971. He was superannuated in 1988. He served faithfully as pastor of the Broadmoor Church and South Mills Church in Virginia, and the National City, Palmdale, and Pomona Churches in California. In the North Carolina Conference he served the following churches: Scotland Neck, Ahoskie (Higher Ground), Red Springs, Beaufort, and Liberty (Goldsboro). He also served as an evangelist. In his later years he was a faithful member of the First Pentecostal Holiness Church of St. Pauls.

Pastor Gurganus touched many lives through his life and ministry. He exemplified a Christ-like manner. He will be remembered as a gently and kind man who will live in the hearts of his family forever.

Home going celebration services were held at the First Pentecostal Holiness Church in St. Pauls, Thursday, March 10, 2005. Officiating were Pastor Raymond Faircloth, Sr. and Superintendent Chris Thompson. His body was laid to rest in the Gardens of Faith Cemetery in Lumberton, North Carolina. Until we meet again may the Lord hold him in the palm of His hand.

Rev. Clayton Guthrie, Jr.

Rev. Clayton Guthrie, Jr., a warrior of the faith and foundational leader of the NC Conference, left us for his Heavenly home early on February 10, 2005. He was a friend and mentor. He was one of the greatest preachers I have ever heard. He preached what he lived and lived what he preached.

Clayton and Sudie Guthrie were blessed with their first child, Clayton Guthrie, Jr., on February 20, 1920, at the small fishing village called Harker's Island.

Clayton, Jr. married the love of his life Ellen Hancock, on May 3, 1941 in New Bern at the Methodist parsonage by the pastor. In June of 1946, their son Clayton Bradley was born. He was a bright spot in their home.

It was a lovely Sunday night, October 15, 1946 when the Lord saved Brother Clayton. It was during a revival at the little white framed building known as the Pentecostal Holiness Church. He joined the church in May 1947. He served the church as a Sunday School teacher, deacon, singer and Secretary-treasurer. Nine years later, on Friday, September 9, 1955, Brother Clayton turned in his resignation at the USMC Air Station in Cherry Point and walked away to enter the ministry on a full-time basis with his faithful companion by his side. He continued to serve the Lord in this capacity for nearly 50 years.

It is interesting to note that Brother Guthrie entered the ministry full time even before he received any credentials. He was call of God. Man would later recognize that call.

He received his Mission Worker's License in November 1955 at the Hodges Chapel Church. He was licensed in August 1956 at Falcon during the Annual Conference. He was ordained by Bishop J. A. Synan two years later in 1958.

During his years of ministry, he served 31 years as a pastor and nearly 20 as an evangelist. He served eight years as a General Church Evangelist. He pastored six churches: Benson, Culbreth Memorial, Tarboro, Emmanuel, New Bern and Harker's Island. Harker's Island was his longest pastorate at three occasions for nearly 22 years.

This servant of God and proclaimer biblical truth would preach over 7,300 sermons. He performed 115 marriages, conducted 315 funerals and preached in 452 revivals and campmeeting. His records show over 1,250 people were saved as a result of his ministry.

Clayton Guthrie was not only a preacher, but he was a leader. He was elected and re-elected to serve 22 years on the NC Conference Board. Fourteen of these were as assistant Superintendent.

He served on the General Loan Fund Board and many NC Conference and General Church committees.

Clayton Guthrie was superannuated in 1986, but he never retired. Up until recently, due to health, he and Sister Ellen continued to faithfully minister and serve the great church they loved. His attitude toward ministry was always wholesome. In 2003, Pastor Ronnie Gurganus invited him to preach for the eighth time at the 2004 Piney Grove Camp Meeting. He replied, "If the Lord does not come or until the rapture calls me home, and I have the strength, I will go." He did go and preach he did! It would be his last revival and campmeeting.

The celebration home going services was held at the Harker's Island Church. He was laid to rest in the Vergie Mae Cemetery on his beloved Harker's Island. Pastor Timothy Bowen, Rev. Tim Owen, Superintendent Chris Thompson and Bishop James Leggett would speak.

He is survived by his wife, Ellen; his son Bradley; and one sister, Joyce Creekmore and husband Charlie of Greensboro; a nephew, Andy Creekmore of Raleigh; two nieces, Charla Webster of Charlotte and Marilyn Rose and Husband Eddie of Harker's Island; great-nice, Mia Smith and children Tabitha and Melisas; and a great-nephew, Eddie Glenn Rose.

Rev. Mary Ruth Heath

Sister Ruth Heath was born on January 5, 1920 in Pender County. She died on April 15, 2005 at the Bethesda Health Care Facility in Fayetteville, North Carolina. Mrs. Heath was the daughter of the late William Alexander and Lessie Laura Rivenbark Heath. She is survived by one sister and one brother. She is also survived by her niece, Rev. Yvonne Wagner and family, missionaries to Africa.

Ruth Heath was converted at the age of fourteen in Pender County. She began ministry at the age of twenty when she entered Holmes Bible College, Greenville, South Carolina in 1940. She remained at Holmes for twelve years. She graduated during that time and taught at the school. She was Dean of Girls for a number of years. During this time she also graduated from Furman University.

Reverend Ms. Heath joined the North Carolina Conference on august 28, 1948. She assisted in pastoring five churches. There were Warsaw, Hollands Chapel, Mount Olive, in Mount Olive, Tyndall Grove, and Stedman. She worked at Falcon Children Home for three years. For twenty years she worked faithfully in Vacation Bible Schools.

In addition to her church, work, Sister Heath worked for thirty years in the Cumberland County School system. She served as teacher, principal and administrator. She was a principal for twelve years.

Here celebration service was held on Sunday afternoon, April 17, 2005. It was a great service.

She is not lost to us. She is in heaven. She will be remembered in love.

Mrs. Nellie Howard
Wife of Reverend O. T. Howard

Mrs. Howard was born August 10, 1910 and was promoted into the Lord's presence on September 8, 2004. The funeral for Mrs. Howard was held on September 11, 2004 at the Greenville First Church. Pastor Paul Brafford and Rev. Frank Gentry officiated. Interment was in the Willowdale Cemetery in Goldsboro.

Sister Howard is survived by her children: two sons, Buddy Howard and Thomas R. Howard; and three daughters, Betty Jo Bailey, Rachel Sorrow and Bonnie simmerman. Her grandson, John, serves on the ministerial staff at Greenville First PH Church and is a member of the Conference Church Education Ministries board. Her husband, Rev. O. T. Howard, died in 1995.

Nellie Howard served faithfully beside her ministerial husband. Together they served church in Tarboro, Bear Grass, Roper, Whiteville, Clinton, Elizabethtown, Rocky Mount, Raleigh, Goldsboro, Greenville, and Wilson. Rev. Howard was the conference secretary for over 35 years.

This was one faithful pastor's wife. She was creative and committed to the cause of Christ.

Rev. Jackson (Jack) Deway Jayroe

In many ways Jack Jayroe was a bridge from the 20th Century latter rain Pentecostals and those of the 21st Century. He knew personally many of the Pentecostals who had received their Pentecost at Azusa Street and more especially those in Dunn, North Carolina, January 1907. He was active in pastoral ministry until days before he died. He and his wife Myrtle were co-pastors at New Creation Worship Center in Havelock when he died on January 23, 2005. Had he lived six more days he would have been 88.

Brother Jayroe was born on January 29, 1917. He was converted to Christ in 1932 at a missionary Baptist Church near Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. He later came into Pentecost and joined the Fire Baptized Holiness Church.

On May 14, 1942, he married Myrtle. For nearly sixty-three years they have sung and preached the Gospel. They were blessed with three children: Sherry, Kay, and Donald. He is survived by eight wonderful grandchildren.

Reverend Jayroe transferred to the North Carolina Conference of the IPHC from the Fire Baptized Holiness Church in 1950. He had already been ordained in the Fire Baptized. During his ministerial years, he would pastor several churches. They are: Elizabethtown, St. Pauls, Roper, Vanceboro, Wallace, New Bern, Glad Tidings, Morehead City, and Grimesland. He would co-pastor with his lovely wife the following churches: Harvest Temple Assembly of God, Grantsboro, Hope Mission Ministries, and at the age of 85, would plant and re-establish the New Creation Church in Havelock. His music talents were used in every church but especially in three churches where he served as Music Director. These were: Whiteville, Cedar Point, and New Life Assembly of God.

The celebration service – and a celebration it was – for Reverend Jayroe was held at Glad Tidings Church in Morehead City.

In 1978, Brother Jack conducted a revival for me at Scotland Neck. It was then that he and Sister Myrtle really began to make a great impression on my life. Brother Jack and Sister Myrtle continued to bless me and the north Carolina Conference when, in their 80's they went to the Havelock church and resurrected it. The church is strong and will soon break one hundred in attendance. Sister Myrtle will continue to work. May the Lord give us more couples like the Jayroes.

Jack was no copy or put on.

Mrs. Betty Manning Leggett
Wife of Rev. Leonard H. Leggett

A celebration of the life of Mrs. Betty Manning Leggett, wife of the late Rev. Leonard H. Leggett, was held on January 23, 2005, at the Biggs Funeral Home in Williamston, NC.

The Leggett's were married some time before her husband gave his heart to God, but when Mr. Leggett was saved and yielded to the call to preach God's Word, she joined him in heart and soul and became his most ardent supporter. Together, they labored in the Lord's Vineyard until his homegoing on January 4, 2001. Mrs. Leggett was a loving mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and great-great-grandmother, and will be greatly missed by her family and many friends.

Those who ministered at her funeral were Rev Tony Hawley, pastor of the Lamm's Grove PH Church in Wilson, where she held her church membership; Rev. Christopher Holliday, grandson and pastor of an American Baptist Church in Kansas City, Kansas; and Rev. Roger Leggett her nephew and pastor of the Williamston PH church. These ministers certainly knew her well, as they talked about her life of trusting and serving the Lord. Rev. Holliday reminisced about those early childhood days he spent with his grandmother and the little things she did and said that made such a great impression on his life and influenced him to give his heart to the Lord and yield to His calling. Rev. Leggett chose Psalm 23, calling it the Pilgrim's Psalm, and emphasized the path the pilgrim takes in life. He talked about God's Leading, provisions and protection.

The old song "this World is Not My Home; I'm Just a' Passing Through" was mentioned as it relates to Sister Leggett. She was just "a pilgrim, passing through." Like her, one day all of us will complete our journey and stand before our Lord to give our final report. It was quite clear to all who attended her celebration service that this dear lady, who had walked and worked side by side with her preacher-husband and upheld him in prayer and sacrifice through the years, will have a good report when she stands before her Lord. Her life and witness were a real testimony to God's grace and tender mercies.

Rev. Mrs. Lois (Jay) Linton

Sister Linton was born on August 2, 1942 and entered into the presence of the Lord on January 5, 2005.

Jay Linton loved to sing the gospel. She considered singing as her primary ministry and sing she did. It was her joy to sing regularly in church services. She served as music director for a season at her home church. She sang often at the Piney Grove Campmeeting.

Reverend Mrs. Linton joined the North Carolina Conference in the year 2000. She was granted the Minister of Music License. She was faithful and diligent in her conference responsibilities.

Jay left us early. The Lord just desired her to come to Heaven. She is survived by her husband, Ralph; two children – Jerri Lewis and Lorine Vonzo; and two step children – Kenneth Linton and Cleveland Linton.

Chapel services were held at the Chapel of Paul Funeral Home on Saturday, January 8, 2005. Pastor Ronnie Gurganus of Hodges Chapel and Superintendent Chris Thompson officiated at the ceremony. Jay will be missed. However, her model of using her talent for the Lord will live long after her.

Mrs. Sylvia Blaylock Long
Wife of Rev. T. Elwood Long

On April 30, 2005 a lady, a woman of God, left this earth and entered heaven. Sylvia Blaylock Long was born on November 26, 1943. Sylvia was the wife of forty-two years to Reverend Elwood Long. Brother Long is the Superintendent of the Falcon Children's Home in Falcon. He had been Superintendent of the North Carolina Conference for eleven years. This team had pastored for twenty-eight years.

A celebration of her life was held on Wednesday, May 4, at 11:00 a.m. at the Julius A. Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle in Falcon, North Carolina. The service was officiated by her pastor, Reverend David Wood of the Shiloh Pentecostal Holiness Church of Wilson, North Carolina. Others participating were Superintendent Chris Thompson, Reverend Gary Strickland, Faye Leggett, wife of Bishop James Leggett and Sylvia's son, Rev. Grey Long.

She is survived by her husband, Reverend T. Elwood Long, a daughter, Kym; sons, Greg and Jason; her mother, Mrs. Eula Hooker, seven grandchildren, one sister, and one brother.

Mrs. Long, a native of Rocky Mount, North Carolina was an avid home decorator and seamstress. Her public employment included social services, legal services including Deputy Clerk of Court. Her last employment was a receptionist at Falcon Children's Home.

Sylvia Long was a delightful lady who left a legacy to her husband, family, friends and all who knew her. She left a legacy of leadership. She led well the North Carolina Minister's Wives Fellowship for eleven years. She taught Sunday School, sang, and worked with the Women Ministry in the six churches the Long's pastored. She served as a Guardian Ad Literm for Harnett County children. She was a member of the Sassy Sisters of Dunn, a local chapter of the Red Hat Society. She promoted World Missions in the local churches, gave personally for the support of missionaries, and supported several People to People Children from the beginning of People to People's inception.

Sister Long left a legacy of life and laughter. Sylvia gave a spark of hope and life to all she met. She adored her children and grandchildren.

She left a legacy of love. She loved her Lord. Saved at the age of seven, her Christian faith was strong and vibrant. She loved her husband and family. All who knew her knew the depth of her love to her God, husband, and family. Her death was not the end but the beginning. Death was an entrance not an exit. She faced death not with fear but with anticipation and expectation – with love for her God.

Sylvia Long will be greatly missed. She left us early for heaven, but heaven is a brighter place and greater hope because She is there.

Mrs. Mary Williams Moore

The homegoing service of Mrs. Mary Williams Moore was held on November 6, 2004 at the Saint Pauls Church. Pastor Ray Faircloth, Sr. led the service.

Mary Moore was the daughter of the late Willie and Alice C. William. She was the beloved wife of the late Rev. Frank R. Moore. She was a devoted Christian and homemaker who loved to serve the Lord and her church. She was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, sister, and friend.

Mary Moore faithfully served the Lord beside her husband in many churches. Together they pastured the following churches: Good Shepherd, North Tarboro, Raeford, Saint Matthew, Saint Pauls, Vanceboro, Westmoreland, Brock's Chapel, and Kenly. For 27 years they labored side by side to build the churches and the kingdom of God.

She is survived by: three daughters – Sue, Lou and Frankie, three sisters, and five grandchildren.

Mary Moore was a grand lady of the faith. She loved the Lord and did all she could to support her husband and build the kingdom.

Rev. Mrs. Luetta Paschall Morris

Most people live lives or exist in various states of desperation – not Luetta Paschall Morris. Most Christians live on the fringes of joy, contentment, and happiness – not Luetta Paschall Morris. Most Christians live under the quilting frame. They know there must be a pattern to it all but they can't seem to put it all together – not Luetta Paschall Morris.

Here is a lady that knew the pattern. She was able to find and discern the Master's purpose. She was able to see the quilt above the frame. She did this spiritually, figuratively, and literally. Because of the way she lived, death was not an exit but an entrance.

Sister Morris was born on February 10, 1916. She was saved at the age of eight. After graduation from High School she began to seek the Lord about her future. She heard of Holmes Bible College in Greenville, South Carolina. She was an excellent student and upon graduation was requested to remain as a member of the staff. She remained there as teacher, dean, and dietician for nine years. While serving at Holmes, she took advantage of furthering her education by attending Furman University where she earned her BS degree in History with a minor in English.

"Miss Lu" as she became affectionately known received her minister's license in 1943. She would do ministry in the Pentecostal Free Will Baptist Church and Upper South Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church. She transferred to the North Carolina Conference in 1952.

On returning to North Carolina and her beloved Garland, she organized the Garland Pentecostal Holiness Church in 1954. She would remain there as pastor until 1963. She would build their first building. Recently she was a major factor in helping the church build a new sanctuary.

In 1963 Sister Morris was assigned to pastor the Peniel Church. She led them in a mammoth building project and relocation. They were able to build a new church and parsonage. The church tripled in size under her leadership and became a "full-time' church. She would pastor the church for twelve years.

Luetta Morris has always been a busy woman. While pasturing she taught public school for twenty-three years. She had conducted vacation bible schools and worked in the Conference youth camps for years.

In 1975 she married Reverend W. Harvey Morris. She then served as a pastor's wife for four years. On their retirement to Falcon, she served on the town council for four years and as mayor for twelve years.

Sister Morris entered the presence of the Lord on April 27, 2005. Her celebration service was conducted in her beloved Peniel Church on Saturday, April 30, 2005.

I had the privilege to be Mrs. Lu's pastor for almost 15 years at Culbreth Memorial. She was totally supportive during my ministry there. I valued her wisdom, her preaching, her Sunday School teaching and the great Christian model that she was to me and those around her.

Rev. Mrs. Lida Mae Hales Rogers

Lida Mae Hales Rogers was born on December 1, 1925 in Johnston County, NC, the daughter of William Henry and Nempie Hales. She graduated from Glendale High School in 1944 and married Tommie Hubert Rogers on October 11, 1944. She is survived by five children; Donnie, Benjamin (Ben), Candace, LaRue, and Will. Granny Rogers was very proud of her 10 grandchildren, 7 great grandchildren, 8 step grandchildren, and 15 step great grandchildren. She is also survived by one brother. Lida Mae is preceded in death by husband, Tommie Hubert Rogers.

Lida Mae was a licensed Mission Worker with the Pentecostal Holiness Church Conference. She was a member of Bizzell Grove Pentecostal Holiness Church in Princeton. Among other things, Lida served as a Sunday School teacher, Women's Ministry President and Vice President, full-time Pastor and fill-in Pastor for various churches over the years. She pastored the Micro and Selma Pentecostal Holiness Churches. She held home prayer meetings and revivals in many areas of the Pentecostal Holiness Conference, and was a speaker at Women's Ministries, and numerous outreaches. She lived in Princeton most of her life before moving to Lillington two years ago for health reasons. She was a retired homemaker as well as a talented seamstress for family and public for many years.

Lida Mae and Hubert Rogers originated the Sunday School Extension Outreach at the Smithfield Manor in 1976 and it is still an ongoing missions work through Bizzell Grove PH Church. Lida Mae was a living example of God's glory with a pure heart filled with His grace. She was the light in the darkness of those who knew her, forever leaving a piece of her heart in their memories. To God be the glory, honor and praise!

She was an avid writer and blessed many with her poems. For several years she published a monthly newsletter entitled – "Silver Threads." Through her words and writings she encouraged many.

Lida Mae passed away on April 19, 2005 at Good Hope Hospital in Erwin. The celebration service was held at Parris Funeral Home in Princeton on Friday, April 22, 2005. She will be long remembered.

Rev. Joseph Lassiter Russell, Jr.

Reverend Joseph L. Russell, Jr. (Joe) was born on August 13, 1927. He left this world for his eternal home on February 2, 2005. A special celebration service was held on Sunday, February 6, 2005 at the Baywood Pentecostal Holiness Church.

Officiating Ministers at this special service were Pastor Oris Hubbard, Rev. Conrad Hall, Superintendent Chris Thompson, and Dr. John Hedgepeth. In addition, Rev. Gary Strickland and Rev. Wiley Clark gave short remarks at the interment.

It was a marvelous service of song and word. Joe Russell had been a faithful and successful minister in the North Carolina Conference.

As a young boy Joe was carried by his newly converted parents, the Reverends Joe and Margaret Russell, to a small church on Cool Springs Street, Fayetteville, and was placed on the altar in dedication to God. That dedication was an effective memory which Joe reverend all his life.

As a young high school graduate, Joe served in the Army Air Corp. Following his military service, he attended Holmes Bible College. Joe represented the school well in singing and preaching throughout the eastern United States.

While at Holmes, Joe was called to preach. He joined the North Carolina Conference of the Pentecostal Holiness Church in 1949. He was ordained in 1951.

In 1951, Joe married Juanita Gore, a Holmes graduate who was working at the Falcon Children's Home. In 1953, Joseph L. Russell, III (Rusty) was born to them during their pastorate at Bethel.

During his 56 years of service he pastored the following churches: Sharon, Bethel, Shiloh (in Wilson), St. Paul (in Greenville), Kinston First, Roanoke Rapids, Person Street (now known as Baywood), Emmanuel (in Raleigh), Lyon Memorial (in Fayetteville), Sanford First, and Chadbourn. His longest pastorate was at Person Street. In a day when pastors moved after one or two years he stayed eight years.

White at these pastorates churches were built, renovations were completed, and additions were made to existing buildings. Lasting friendships were formed, and fond memories remained to comfort the Russell family.

During his years of successful ministry Joe served in various Conference leadership positions. He was president of the Lifeliners Board. He served a term on the ministerial examining committee. He was on a special study commission to review ministerial retirement. He also served a term on the General Armed Forces Board.

The Reverend Russell is survived by his wife, Juanita, and son, Joseph Lassiter Russell, III and three sisters Joyce Russell Hayes of Fayetteville, Rebecca Russell Howard of Harkers Island, and Susan Russell Norris of New Bern.

He has left us, but he is not lost. We know where he is. He has gone to heaven before us.

Rev. William Marvin Watkins

Reverend W. M. Watkins, age 79, was called to heaven on Sunday morning, March 6, 2005 at his home. He was born May 20, 1925 to the late Willie and Jenny Watkins.

The funeral celebration service was held Wednesday, March 9, 2005 at the Chapel of Parris Funeral Home in Selma. Burial followed in the Selma Memorial Gardens. Officiating at the celebration service were Rev. Marvin Smith, Rev. Jimmy Swinson, Rev. Charles Pittman, and Superintendent Chris Thompson.

Reverend Watkins is survived by his wife of 58 years, Mrs. Ella West Lambert Watkins. They are blessed with three children: a son, Rev. Chris Watkins of Mount Olive; two daughters, Rev. Kathy Duszynski of Chapel Hill, and Connie Price Sprague of Princeton. They have five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Brother Watkins also leaves behind one brother, and one sister.

Rev. Watkins was saved at the Bizzell Grove Church in 1931. He was six years old. At the age of eighteen he received his Mission Workers License (1943). In 1946, he was licensed with the North Carolina Conference. He was later ordained in 1949. He would serve faithfully in active ministry until being superannuated in 1986. After that time he would fill in to preach as often as possible and would pastor for a season the Selma Independent Holiness Church.

Brother Watkins received his first pastoral assignment in 1946. He pastored for forty-two years in the North Carolina Conference. He pastured the following churches; several for two terms. His longest pastorate were for seven years each at Tyndall Grove and Vaughan's Chapel. The churches pastored include: Jones Grove, Faison, Deavers Chapel, Pink Hill, Graham, Pikes Crossroads, Tyndall Grove, Vaughan's Chapel, Lowland, Hobucken, Shelmerdine, Rehoboth, Saint Pauls, Mount Olive (Goldsboro District) Belhaven, Niagara, Whitley, Beaufort, Clayton, Calypso, and Micro. In addition to pastoring he had an active radio broadcast for three years. He was in tent evangelism for eight years.

Reverend W. M. Watkins loved his Lord, wife, children and his music. He enjoyed playing the banjo, singing, and preaching the gospel. He will be missed. However, he is not lost. We know where he is!

Rev. Thaddeus Mayo White

Thaddeus Mayo White made his entrance into the world and brightened the lives of his parents, Palmer and Mattie White on June 1, 1933, making him the sixth of eight children born to this union.

Thad's life was like all the other children born to the many families who lived in Bear Grass, a little rural village near Williamston. Those who lived there were usually the good and honest folks who earned their living by the sweat of their brow. There was in this area a little church called Bethany Pentecostal Holiness Church that had a profound influence on the life of this and the early years of Thad's Life.

In time, the family moved nearer to Williamston and started attending the Williamston PH Church. This church became the regular place of worship. Under Miss Mattie's (his mother) constant influence and prayers, the children grew spiritually and physically and attended the public schools.

King, Thad's older brother, had been saved, accepted a call to preach and was conducting a revival at the Holly Hill PH Church near Vanceboro. Thad attended this meeting and on April 1, 1950, under the ministry of his brother, he gave his heart to the Lord. Soon after, he accepted the call of God on his life and joined the North Carolina Conference. In September, 1951, he enrolled at Holmes College in Greenville, SC, where he studied for 2 years. This pastorate served to launch him into a ministry that would take him through more that 50 years of active service in the kingdom of God. He also earned a BA degree in Biblical Studies from Southwestern College in Oklahoma City, OK in 1976.

The Lord gave Thad the loving assistance of a beautiful young lady named Sallie, whom he married on his birthday in June, 1955. Not being fortunate enough to have children of their own, they reached out to a little boy named Ritchie Ray and later to a little girl whom they named Sallie Elizabeth, or Beth, and adopted them. Thad and Sallie pastured 14 churches over their ministerial life, including: Jamesville, Spring Home, Friendship in Aurora, Graham Memorial, Whitley, Tiffany Street (now known as West Road), Westmoreland, Millenium, Emmanuel, Clinton, Person street (now known as Baywood), Wallace, Pike's Crossroads, St. Paul, and Hollands, Chapel. They also spent more than 2 years as a missionary couple to Alaska.

Thad served on various committees and boards in his conference, always with excellence. He was a good pastor and his success is reflected in the progress his churches made spiritually and numerically. He was a great promoter of "Bible Quizzing" and loved to work with young people. On one of several years, he took his team to Nationals and brought home the championship trophy. He represented his conference at many General Conventions and when he felt strongly about an issue, stood to his feet to express his convictions after giving much thought to his position. He was a thinker.

One of his more memorable opportunities came when he was appointed by his church to serve as coordinator to bring about a better relationship between the African American Holiness Churches and his church. He developed a wonderful relationship with these true believers and we are now reaping great benefit from the effort he put forth. At the recent African American Fellowship Conference in April, Thad was honored for the great work he accomplished in this area.

Two days after Christmas in 1997, Sallie met with a fatal accident, leaving Thad devastated. In time he met a lovely lady named Nora Strickland and they were married on November 7, 1998.

Thad is survived by his wife, Nora, his two children - Ritchie and Beth; two brothers – Rev. King White of Dunn and Rev. Wayne White of Smithfield; one sister, Ola Mae, five grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

So, reflect with us as we remember our fiend for what he meant to so many while he was here. Rejoice with us as we only try to conceive of his joy when he met his Lord face to face. And pledge with us to live your life in such a way that you will one day have the opportunity to see him again in Heaven, and share in the riches our Lord has for all his faithful servants.

This group has joined "the great cloud of witnesses" referred to by the writer in Hebrews 12:1, and their message to us if possible would be. Be faithful, be diligent in your walk with Christ, for soon we'll all be joined together again and will forever enter the joys of our Lord.

I conclude this report by asking this congregation to stand for a few moments of silence, co-memorating and honoring their lives and then our chairman and Bishop will come and pray for strength and encouragement to those left behind and that we will follow their footsteps into our Lord's Presence.

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
MINUTES OF 2005 CONVENTION

The North Carolina Women's Ministries met for the Sixty-First Annual Convention on Saturday, June 4, 2005 at the Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle in Falcon, North Carolina. The Convention theme was "There's Just Something about That Name!" "Glorify the Lord with me; let us exalt His name together "(Psalms 34:3).

Registration began at 8:00 a.m. in the Training Center with Mrs. Marjorie Teachey as Registrar, assisted by the North Carolina Women's Ministries District Directors. The Saint John's Women's Ministries of Goldsboro, NC, directed by Tamara Ray, hosted refreshments during registration. Six local Women's Ministries groups, other Conference Ministries, along with two art exhibits had "Show and Sell" displays in the cafeteria.

Music prelude began at 8:30 a.m. by the Stedman Praise Band.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

Jehovah-Nissi (Our Banner)

NCWM Assistant Director, Rev. Janice Marshburn extended a hearty welcome to approximately two hundred & fifty ladies from the North Carolina Pentecostal Holiness Churches. In keeping with the theme, Rev. Marshburn encouraged us to call on the Names of Jesus, for in His Names there is everything that we need. Jehovah-Nissi (My Banner); Jehovah-Jireh (My Provider); Jehovah-Shammeh (He is There); Jehovah-Shalom (My Peace); Jehovah-Rophe (My Healer); Jehovah-Rohi (My Shepherd); Jehovah-Tsidkenu (My Righteousness); and Jehovah-M'Kaddesh (My Sanctifier).

Director Deese recognized and welcomed all Past Conference Presidents/Directors including Mrs. Linda Thomas, Mrs. Mary Belle Johnson, Mrs. Dollie Davenport, and Mrs. Jean Williams.

We were lifted into "Heavenly Places" as the Stedman Praise Team led us in worship choruses, including "We Have Come Into This House", "Open The Eyes of My Heart", and "There's Just Something About That Name".

North Carolina Conference Superintendent, Rev. D. Chris Thompson, brought greetings from 206 churches, Anglo and Hispanic, with 28,000 members. He gave us an up-date concerning the progress on the new Culbreth Memorial Tabernacle. He believes that it will be completed by the end of this year. He also reports that bathrooms are being installed in the Octagonal Tabernacle and a Royal Rangers building is being built. To God Be the Glory! He is "Jehovah Jireh"!

Jehovah-Jireh (He is Our Provider)

Mrs. Marjorie Teachey addressed the Convention on behalf of Benevolence. In 2004 the North Carolina Conference gave $173,025.56 in cash and commodities to Falcon Children's Home. Gifts to ATAM (Alternative to Abortion) amounted to $2,266.92. Marjorie expressed her deep appreciation for the generosity of the women of the North Carolina Conference.

Mrs. Lois Trueblood spoke to the Convention about Education. She testified personally about what Emmanuel College has meant in her life. Lois assisted NCWM Director in awarding 29 Scholarships to the following students at Emmanuel College: Melissa Dunning, Kristin Green, Summer Green, Leslie Harris, Lindsey Henderson, Kelsey Peele, Rylan Jones and Victoria R. Smith.

Director Deese also thanked Rylan Jones for helping with the preparations for the Convention.

Director Deese introduced Summer Green, a rising junior at Emmanuel College and a Scholarship recipient, Summer thanked the women of the North Carolina Conference for their generosity to Feast of Ingathering. She spoke about her experiences at Emmanuel College and how she had been able to take a life-changing mission trip to Nairobi, Kenya. The anointing of the Lord was present as Summer and her sister, Kristin, who will be a freshman at Emmanuel, sang "The Lion and The Lamb".

Mrs. Bobbie McNeese addressed the Convention on behalf of Girl's Ministries. The North Carolina Girl's Ministries is thriving and growing. Gifts of appreciation were presented to each member of this team; Bobbie McNeese, Mary Clark, Nancy Roberson and Media Lee.

Mrs. Blanche Pollard, Happy Hearts Coordinator, reported that in 2004, the Happy Hearts made and filled approximately 1,000 Christmas Stockings for Red Hook in Brooklyn, New York and Agape Christian Center in Pittsburgh, Pa. Many of the stockings were shipped and others were delivered to Pittsburgh by a group of Happy Hearts. Rev. Pollard expressed appreciation to Margaret Potter and Marjorie Teachey for their assistance as regional coordinators. Marjorie Teachey gave information concerning the planned trip to Red Hook and Manhattan, NY this fall.

Ms. Terry Boyette reported that North Carolina Conference is the number one Conference in the Pentecostal Holiness Church in missions giving. She expressed her appreciation to all the ladies for their hard work and generosity for Missions Support, People to People, Mug a Month, and Christmas Missions. Gailia List, Missionary to Africa brought greetings and words of appreciation to all for their support to World Missions.

Missionary Rose Boyd presented a gift of appreciation to Director Deese as a symbol of her sincere thanks to all the women of the North Carolina Conference. She reported that the "Teaching Tools" ministry is growing and expanding. To God Be The Glory!

Rev. Janice Marshburn, whose portfolio is Prayer and Sharing Sisters, reminded us of the "WIN" (World Intercession Network) Conference in November and the power in praying the Word. She directed us to the insert in our packets, "Personal Prayers from Colossians", to help us become more effective in prayer.

Director Patsy Deese prefaced her State of the North Carolina Women's Ministries Report with Psalms 34:3 "Glorify the Lord with me, let us exalt His name together". She gave glory to God for all He has enabled her to do.

Director Deese expressed appreciation to all who have been helpful in any way, including NC Conference Superintendent Rev.D. Chris Thompson; NC Conference Board Members and staff; her local church, Maranatha, her pastor, Rev. Richard Robinson and wife, Joan; NCWM Board Members; District Directors; NCWM Historian; the Prayer Team, Ministers Wives Fellowship Director, Mrs. Betty Thompson, and to all those who serve on the local level. She continues to give thanks to "Mr. Henry", her husband, for all he does, from answering the telephone to helping with the mail-outs and his continuing support for Women's Ministries.

Director Deese compared the women with a snowflake, which is very fragile, but when you have more than one, they can stop traffic! Her motto is "Together We Can Make A Difference".

Director Deese presented gifts of appreciation to NCWM Board Members, Girl's Ministries Leadership Team, Happy Hearts Coordinator, District Directors, Couples Retreat Coordinators and NCWM Historian. Rev. Janice Marshburn presented Director Deese with a gift from the North Carolina Women's Ministries.

Mrs. Regina Whitfield was scheduled to give the Memoirs Report, but due to sickness was unable to attend the Convention. Dorothy Boyette, NCWM Historian, read the Memoirs Report.

Jehovah Shammeh-(Jehovah is There)

After the closing prayer of the Memoirs Report, Rev. Janice Marshburn led us in a "new peppy" version of "The Women's Ministries Song".

Director Deese introduced Guest speaker, Mrs. Faye Leggett, General Director of Minister's Wives Fellowship. Mrs. Leggett has served the Lord faithfully as a pastor's wife for twenty-four years and as a Conference Women's Ministries President and board member. She also served for eight years on the General Women's Ministries Board as vice-president.

Mrs. Leggett, after reading her text from Phil: 9-10, brought to us a very encouraging message. She inspired us as she made personal reference about how the Names of Jesus has helped her in times of trials, sickness and difficulties. She focused on "The Presence, The Provision, and The Praise that is in His Name! She reminded us of God's greatness and power. She exhorted us to lean on Him as our deliverer, healer, shepherd, provider, shelter, or whatever we need. In His Name, there is everything.

After her message, Mrs. Leggett invited those who needed to call on His name for something in their lives to come forward for prayer. Many came forward and were blessed of the Lord as we prayed one for another.
The Sixty-First NCWM Convention closed with the following benediction:

"Send us forth, in every good work, to do Thy will, O Lord
And keep us, whose minds are stayed on Thee, in perfect peace."
Amen

The First Women's Ministries of Goldsboro, NC in loving memory of Mrs. Pearl McRoy provided the beautiful floral arrangement for this Convention.

Respectfully Submitted,

Marjorie Teachey
NCWM Secretary/Treasurer

NORTH CAROLINA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES
2004-2005 REPORT OF THE DIRECTOR

"Glorify the Lord with me; let us exalt His name together." (Psalm 34:3)

Our theme for this NCWM Convention is "There's Something Special About That Name". There is no other name like the name, "Jesus". If you will, please say to yourself, "Jesus", "Jesus"! It's in the name of "Jesus" that demons have to flee, the sick are healed and blinded eyes are opened. He is the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords and we were created to worship Him. The Apostle John spent the last years of his life as a prisoner in exile on the island of Patmos. It wasn't exactly what he had planned for his life. But in that situation God gave John visions of God's glory and the Lord's future triumph. He saw angels and men worshipping the Lord, and he, too fell down to worship Him.

Thank you for allowing me the privilege of worshipping and serving with you. Together we have exalted His name and we have seen Him move in hearts and lives. I am sincere when I say; I am honored to serve as your Conference Women's Ministries Director. Through this avenue of service, God has blessed me beyond measure. Since our convention last year, I have traveled 7455 miles across the North Carolina Conference. You have allowed me to be a part of your WM Day observances, Sharing Sister programs, and your local meetings. I have held workshops, and training sessions, planned and executed our Leadership Seminar, the NCWM Retreat, local Director's Council, District Director's training and participated in district rallies.

Many of you will never see the faces or know the names of the men, women and children that you have helped through your unselfish giving. Your contributions to Feast of Ingathering, including matching funds, were $75,268.48. These funds were designated to Emmanuel College, Southwestern College, Pacific Coast Bible College and Holmes Bible College.

You gave $13,569.30 toward Christmas Missions to bless our missionaries with Christmas gifts. Additionally, you supported other mission's projects in the amount of $4,729.90.

Falcon Children Home was the recipient of $173,025.56 in cash and commodities from North Carolina Conference through the WM supported Harvest Train. You gave $2,266.92 to the Alternative to Abortion Ministry (ATAM).

At the NCWM Convention last June, you donated $500.00 for a Memorial Brick for the Founder-Sustainer Brick Garden to be built near the new J. A. Culbreth Memorial Auditorium.

Girl's Ministry is a vital part of Women's Ministries. It continues to grow under the leadership of BOBBIE NCNEESE and her leadership team, NANCY ROBERSTON, MARY CLARK AND MEDIA LEE. We are so grateful that each of these young women has allowed the Lord to use them and their talents. God has placed a genuine love for this ministry in each of them and we appreciate their dedication and all their hard work. We challenge each church to use this opportunity to minister to the young girls in you church and community. You will be blessed!

Under the leadership of BLANCHE POLLARD and assisted by MARJORIE TEACHEY & MARGARET POTTER, the HAPPY HEARTS are going strong. We are proud of our leadership team. They are doing an excellent job in planning and promoting the Happy Hearts meetings and activities. The excitement among our senior adults is contagious. Thank you for a job well done.

CATHY WARD and CATHY ARTHUR have coordinated our COUPLES RETREAT for the past twelve years. Each year the programs and activities have been outstanding. This year was no exception. The group met in Winston-Salem, North Carolina for a time of refreshing and then traveled to Greensboro to enjoy the Gaithers. We are going to miss these girls as they seek the Lord's will for another avenue of service. Thank you for all your love and dedication to this ministry. You made a great team and you made us proud.

THE PAST PRESIDENT'S CLUB chaired by DOLLIE DAVENPORT is a great support group. Dollie, along with CLARA WILLIAMS, JEAN WILLIAMS, SUE PARKER, FAYE LEGGETT, MARY BELLE JOHNSON AND LINDA M. THOMAS are women that love the Lord and are dedicated to the work of Women's Ministry. I appreciate their prayers and encouragement. I am blessed to follow in the footsteps of such outstanding leaders. I admire each of them and I appreciate their words of wisdom.

NCWM Board Members JANICE, MARJORIE, LOIS AND TERRY are committed to Women Ministries. They love serving you. The long board meetings and planning sessions have not slowed them down. They continue to look for ways to serve in this great ministry. As Conference Director, I could not do all that needs to be done without them. The Lord has blessed this Conference with a great team. Thank you seems so inadequate, but from the bottom of my heart, I appreciate each of you and your individual talents. You are a blessing to this Conference and me.

NCWM DISTRICT DIRECTORS are a blessing from the Lord. They continue to serve in this ministry with a strong desire to lend a hand whenever possible. They are a great vehicle for communication between Conference programs and activities and the local church. They serve as registrars and helpers at Conference functions. They promote Women's Ministries on the local level by organizing rallies, leadership meetings and keeping in touch with local directors. A very special thank you to ROSE ALLIGOOD, WESTA BAREFOOT, MARGARET BERRY, BARBARA BISHOP, JOANN BLACKMON, CAROL DAVIS, ROSE HUBBARD, YVONNE JONES, TAMMY PADGETTE, GALE TAYLOR and TERESA WOODARD.

To our NCWM HISTORIAN, DOROTHY BOYETTE, we say "thank you, thank you, thank you"! You are one of a kind. You do an outstanding job keeping up with the activities and events of Women's Ministries. We have the greatest scrapbooks in the world and we owe you a great big round of applause for all your hard work and dedication.

I would like to say thank you to the RDC personnel and the NC Conference Board for all their continued love and support. They are a great support team and I appreciate all their hard work and dedication to the work of this ministry.

NC Conference Superintendent CHRIS THOMPSON continues to support this ministry and me with his words of encouragement and prayers. The Lord has given him a vision for Women's Ministries and together we are seeking the Lord's wisdom and direction for future growth in ministry. We agree with him that this is the year of miracles and we are expecting great and wonderful things to happen. I praise the Lord for a leader that is concerned about every ministry in this great Conference.

We appreciate our First Lady, BETTY THOMPSON, as she leads the Minister's Wives Fellowship as Conference Director. She is doing an outstanding job. Thank you for giving to the Lord.

NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE OF THE PENTECOSTAL HOLINESS CHURCH

To our Faithful PRAYER TEAM, a very special thank you for continuing to pray for the NCWM Board and the work of Women's Ministries at home and around the world. We appreciate each one of you. We are blessed to know that someone is praying for us.

To my home church, Maranatha and my Pastor Richard Robinson and his wife, Joan, thank you for your prayers and support of this ministry. When I'm away from home and my church, I know you are praying for me and I appreciate you more than words can say.

Last but not least, I must say thank you to my husband, Henry. It is amazing how God is using him to help me. He enjoys talking with each of you and getting to know you. He encourages me to do what I can and let him help when he can. The Lord has used this ministry to strengthen our relationship and we are blessed because God is in control.

To each of you may I say thank you for all you do on the local level. You are the instrument that God is using to meet the needs in your local church and community. I heard someone say that a snowflake is very fragile but when you have more than one, they can stop traffic. Together we can make a difference! Please know that the NCWM Board and I are here to serve you. You are loved and appreciated.

In His Love,

Patsy C. Deese

2005 NCWM MEMOIRS REPORT

Compiled by Regina Whitfield
Read by Dorothy Boyette

Today we have come to celebrate the memory of some precious ladies who may have once sat where you are sitting today. They, too, had the privilege of being a part of our great church, a member of the Women's Ministries of the North Carolina Conference; but some of them were members of the Woman's Auxiliary long before we became Women's Ministries. They truly were women in ministry and a vital part of the Women's Ministries of this Conference.

As I call the names of each one that have deceased in the year 2004, if there are any family members present, would you please stand and those who may be from the church they served. Please stand also.

CLINTON DISTRICT:

After all these dear ladies' names were called, we had a time of silent prayer in their memory and then a closing prayer.

OUR MISSION:

To multiply and mature believers and churches in worship, fellowship, and evangelism as we walk in obedience to the Great Commission in cooperation with the whole Body of Christ.
